Check if your LLC qualifies before you create an account.

We support single-member, foreign-owned, disregarded-entity LLCs with standard financial transactions. If your case is too complex, we'll stop you here before you pay.

LLC SETUP

1.1. Does your LLC currently have an Employer Identification Number (EIN) issued by the IRS?

Yes No

1.2. Is your company a single-member LLC formed in a U.S. State?

Yes No

1.3. Is the sole owner a non-US resident? (You must NOT have US Citizenship, a US Green Card, or meet the IRS Substantial Presence Test).

The IRS Substantial Presence Test is a formula based on days spent in the US over a 3-year period. Generally, if you spent more than 120 days in the US in each of the last 3 years, or 183 days in the current year, you may be a US tax resident. If close to these limits, please verify your status using the IRS formula.

Yes No

1.4. Is your LLC still on the default tax treatment (you did not file Form 8832 or 2553 to have it taxed as a corporation)?

Yes No

U.S. ACTIVITY

2.1. Did your LLC earn any income treated as coming from the United States, for example from work done in the U.S., U.S. rents, or U.S. royalties?

If all work was performed outside the US and the LLC had no U.S. real estate, U.S. royalties, or other U.S.-source passive income, answer No. U.S. clients or a U.S. bank account alone usually do not make the income U.S.-source.

Yes No

2.2. Does your LLC have any U.S.-based employees, a U.S. office or warehouse, or someone working only for the LLC from inside the United States?

Yes No

RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

3.1. Does your LLC import goods from any foreign company that you (the owner) also own or are related to?

Yes No

3.2. Did money or anything of value move between your LLC and a family member, or another foreign company you or your family own?

Transactions include any movement of value, such as paying a family member for services or transferring funds between your companies.

Yes No

3.3. Other than normal owner funding or owner withdrawals, did the LLC have any formal loans with the owner or a related foreign party?

Formal loans have a set interest rate and repayment schedule. Standard capital contributions (funding the LLC) or distributions (taking profit out) are NOT formal loans.

Yes No

3.4. Has your LLC received or transferred any non-cash property (vehicles, equipment, real estate, intellectual property) to or from the owner?

If you only contributed cash to the LLC, answer No. Your personal time, services, and "sweat equity" do not count as property transfers.

Yes No

3.5. Other than normal software subscriptions or payments to freelancers, did the LLC pay royalties, IP licensing fees, or loan interest to a foreign person or company?

Select NO for standard software subscriptions (e.g., Shopify, Canva) or paying foreign freelancers for services.

Yes No

OTHER COMPLEXITY CHECKS

4.1. Does your LLC own 20% or more of any other company (corporation, partnership, or trust)?

Yes No

4.2. Did your LLC receive, sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any digital assets (cryptocurrency, NFTs, stablecoins) during the tax year?

Simply holding crypto in a wallet doesn't need to be reported here. But if the LLC received crypto as payment, or paid for services/expenses with it, you must answer Yes.

Yes No

YEAR-END CHANGES

5.1. Did the ownership change, or was the LLC closed, dissolved, sold, or liquidated during the tax year?

Yes No
